The purpose of this guide is to provide healthcare providers and their clients a list of community resources located in the Fraser Health Region which may aid in improving and managing health. This guide is divided into four sections and lists the community programs by type of service. The six sections are 1. Financial Assistance 2. Physical Activity Resources 3. Food and Nutrition Programs 4. Advocacy, Education, Literacy and ESL Programs 5. Medical Services (includes foot care) 6. Mental Health and Addictions Resources. As programs change regularly, users are urged to call or email the programs to ensure the information is up-to-date. An online version will be available in the near future. Please contact, Julieta Gerbrandt at julietag@uvic.ca to add a service that is missing or remove a service that is no longer available.

| Registered Disability Savings Plan | About: This plan was designed to provide long-term financial security for a person with a disability. Tax-deferred investment growth, along with generous government grants and bonds make the RDSP a powerful investment tool. Perhaps the most attractive reason to open up an RDSP is to get access to the annual Canada Disability Savings Grants (CDSGs) which can provide 100%, 200% or 300% matching grants, depending both on the beneficiary’s family income and the amount contributed, up to a lifetime maximum CDSG limit of $70,000.
Financial Assistance

| Canada Disability Savings Bond | About: The Canada Disability Savings Bond is money the Government will deposit into the Registered Disability Savings Plans (RDSPs) of low-income and modest-income Canadians. If you qualify for the Bond, you will receive up to $1,000 a year depending on your family income (see beneficiary's family income). There is a limit of $20,000 over your lifetime. Bonds are paid into the RDSP until the end of the calendar year in which you turn 49 years of age. You do not need to make any contributions to your RDSP to receive the Bond.

| City of Langley - Recreation, Culture, and Community Services | About: Langley Recreation, Culture, and Community (LRCC) Services is dedicated to creating a welcoming and safe environment where everyone can participate in a wide range of recreational opportunities regardless of age, ability, background, or economic status. LRCC offers a broad range of recreational programs and activities, which you can browse in the LRCC recreation guide: www.city.langley.bc.ca/index.php/recreation-and-community/recreation-guide

There are 2 components to LRCC’s adapted recreation and leisure options:

A) Langley Adapted Programs & Services

Langley Recreation, Culture, and Community Services (LRCC) offers certain programs and services that are adapted to persons with disabilities. LRCC also manages multiple facilities throughout the City of Langley that offer wheelchair accessible features.

The following are recreational programs offered by LRCC that are either:

B) Langley Leisure Access Grant Program

Web: www.city.langley.bc.ca/index.php/recreation-and-community/recreation-programs

The Leisure Access Grant Program is designed to allow City of Langley residents to access leisure opportunities regardless of cost. The City of Langley will cover a percentage of an individual’s chosen recreation program, depending on the financial needs of each applicant. Payment plans may also be set up to lighten the burden for individuals. All fees not covered by the grant must be paid in full at the time of registration.

Eligible applicants and their family members will receive a discount (25-75%) to cover the cost of either a City of Langley program, a City of Langley pass, or an aquatic pass to indoor pools (adults and seniors only). Applications are accepted once per season, and you must submit a new application each year to renew your Leisure Access Grant.

Valley Therapeutic Equestrian Association, Langley

Address: 3330 256th Street, Langley
Phone: 604-857-1267

About: The Valley Therapeutic Equestrian Association (VTEA) is a non-profit charitable organization that has provided therapeutic horseback riding for children and adults with all forms of disabilities since 1983. Their goal is to enhance the quality of life for their clients by improving their physical, mental, and emotional well-being with the assistance of the horse.

New participants must provide a physician referral if they wish to become a rider. VTEA’s Consulting Physiotherapist conducts an initial assessment and creates a unique riding program for each participant in conjunction with VTEA instructors. Special or adapted equipment may be used and one-on-one instruction and riding volunteers are organized to assist with each lesson. Financial assistance may be available to riders.

Community Adult Literacy Program, Fraser Health Region

About: A key component of B.C.’s adult literacy strategy is support for community-based programs. For over 20 years non-profit organizations, in partnership with post-secondary education institutions, have been supported by the province to provide programs to adults wishing to improve their literacy.

The goals of the community adult literacy program are:

To increase the level of literacy and numeracy proficiencies among adults – 19 years and older – in order to meet the increasing demands of our knowledge-based economy.

To meet the varying needs of adult learners, including Aboriginal Peoples, immigrants and persons with disabilities.

To increase literacy awareness among British Columbians.

In the 2013/14 program year, 82 community-based literacy programs have been supported. View the complete listing of programs in communities across the province at the website below.

About: Decoda Literacy Solutions is the only province-wide literacy organization in British Columbia. Providing resources, training and funds, Decoda supports community-based literacy programs and initiatives in over 400 communities across B.C. Decoda supports children and families, youth, adults, Aboriginal and immigrant communities in an effort to build strong individuals, strong families and strong communities. As a non-profit organization, Decoda relies on the generosity of individual donors, corporate partners and government to fund literacy work.

Literacy Outreach Coordinators are the backbone of literacy work in communities across British Columbia. Currently there are 102 coordinators, serving more than 400 communities in our province. They work with literacy task groups in communities to identify and address local literacy priorities and achieve local literacy goals.

If you have a question about the literacy work being done in your community or if you are interested in a program or service, connect with your local outreach coordinator listed on the left by area.

HeretoHelp, Mental Health and Addictions

About: HeretoHelp is a project of the BC Partners for Mental Health and Addictions Information. We are a group of seven leading mental health and addictions non-profit agencies. Since 2003, we’ve been working together to help people live well and better prevent and manage mental health and substance use problems. You can find an array of self-help resources on their website listed below.

If you believe that your life or someone else’s life is in danger, call 911.

Crisis lines aren’t only for people in crisis. You can call for information on local services or if you just need someone to talk to. If you are in distress, call 310-6789 (do not add 604, 778 or 250 before the number) 24 hours a day to connect to a BC crisis line, without a wait or busy signal. The crisis lines linked in through 310-6789 have received advanced training in mental health issues and services by members of the BC Partners for Mental Health and Addictions Information.

1-800-SUICIDE: If you are in distress or worried about someone else, call 1-800-SUICIDE (1-800-784-2433). It’s free and available 24 hours a day.

Beyond the Blues Education and Screening Days

The events are free, anonymous, confidential and walk-in. Most sites also host presentations, videos or games, and/or health fairs. Anyone is welcome to attend—whether you want to fill out a self-test or not. If you do choose to a screening, they are completely free and totally anonymous. ### Canadian Mental Health Association – BC Division

About: The Canadian Mental Health Association (CMHA), BC Division exists to promote the mental health of British Columbians and support the resilience and recovery of people experiencing mental illness.

We do this through advocacy, education, community-based research, and services, as well as the support we provide to the 19 CMHA branches throughout BC.

We’re part of one of the oldest voluntary organizations in Canada, which provides direct service to more than 100,000 Canadians through the combined efforts of more than 10,000 volunteers and staff across Canada.

Bounce Back is an evidence-based program designed to help adults experiencing symptoms of mild to moderate depression, low mood, or stress, with or without anxiety. Bounce Back offers two forms of help. The first is a DVD video (available in English, Mandarin and Cantonese) providing practical tips on how to recognize and deal with depressive symptoms. The second service is workbook-based with telephone coaching (available in English, French and Cantonese). Bounce Back community coaches assist in the teaching of problem-solving and other skills to overcome difficulties such as inactivity, unhelpful thinking, worry, and avoidance. Access to the coaching component requires a doctor's referral.
